Lok Sabha Elections in Mysuru on Apr.18

Violation of Code of Conduct to invite action

- Preparations in full swing to set up static check-posts
- Dist. Admn. takes back Govt. vehicles given to netas

Mysuru, Mar.12(RK&SR)- The District Administration has made elaborate preparations for strict enforcement of the Model Code of Conduct for the Lok Sabha elections across the District.

The preparations include setting up of static check-posts at all entry/ exit points of the city and other strategic locations including 12 State Highways connecting the district. These check-posts will prevent illegal transportation of cash and electronic gadgets to woo voters. Besides, Static Surveillance Squads and Flying Squads have been formed to prevent any violation of the code.

German-style tents will be installed at check-posts near K.R. Mills on Bengaluru-Mysuru Road, near Sunanda Factory on KRS Road, MMC Factory on Hunsur Road, near Bogadi Road signal, near Srirampura on H.D. Kote Road signal and as well as on the road connecting Nanjangud, Bannur, Madevapura and other junctions.

The District Administration will provide all basic facilities round-the-clock at the check-posts. Local Police will assist the poll duty officials during checks.

The name board of one of the Government vehicles being covered in a black cloth near the Deputy Commissioner's office in city this morning. These vehicles will be used for poll duty.

It is mandatory to seek permission from the District Administration for transporting cash in excess of Rs.50,000. Though permission is not necessary for conducting weddings and religious programmes, organisers should take measures to ensure the events are not misused for political benefits.

The District Administration has warned that those found violating the Poll Code of Conduct will be strictly dealt with.

Posters removed

A team of officials from MCC, MUDA and District Administration have already swung into action to clear graffiti, posters, banners, flags and other political publicity materials across the city.

Officials have removed such publicity materials put up by political parties highlighting their Governments' achievements and programmes near CADA Office, KSRTC Bus Stand, Railway Station, various junctions and Circles. The drive started soon after poll schedule announcement on Sunday evening.

Government advertisements on welfare and other schemes with pictures of the Chief Minister and Deputy Chief Minister were brought down.

Surrender weapons to Police immediately: Deputy Comr.

Mysuru, Mar.12 (RK)- Deputy Commissioner Abhiram G. Sankar, who is also the District Electoral Officer and Returning Officer, has asked all arms owners in Mysuru-Kodagu Parliamentary Constituency to surrender their weapons to the Police as the Model Code of Conduct for the General Elections has come into effect.

Speaking to newsmen here on Monday, he said that gun licence-holders are mandated to deposit their guns in their jurisdictional Police Stations before the elections. The weapons owner has to visit the Police Station along with the weapon and its licence. Once it is handed over to the Police, the weapon will be kept in the Police Department Armoury and will be returned to the respective owners after the elections.

The DC said election Code of Conduct mandates arms licence holders to deposit their weapons at the Police Station and stringent action will be taken against gun owners who fail to do so.

The Deputy Commissioner also said that anti-social elements and rowdy-sheeters have already been warned not to violate the law and that all political parties have been informed not to advertise their achievements unless they meet the terms and conditions set-forth by the Election Commission.

Meanwhile, City Police Commissioner K.T. Balakrishna, speaking to SOM this morning, said that those seeking exemptions from depositing their weapons such as armed bank security guards, security guards deputed in vans carrying cash to ATMs, Jamma land owners etc., should first give an application seeking exemption and the Committee consisting of Superintendent of Police, City Police Commissioner and other officials will deliberate and decide.

Trailing the teachers

The education sector, primary and secondary schools in particular, continues to be the whipping boy as it were for its shortcoming on many counts, not to forget the phenomenon of school drop out showing no signs of abating in the State. The teacher fraternity who have been in the background, escaping the assault by the critics of the other functionaries of the sector, have just been bestowed attention which is sure to rattle the army of teachers only in the aided private schools. Their work and the outcome thereof are headed to be brought under the scanner by the Department of Education judging by the parameter of percentage of passes in the qualifying public examination achieved by their respective schools. When and what reaction the measure may produce in the fraternity of the target section of teachers may trigger more debates by the academics who are keenly following the department's ways of managing the sector.

The just announced move of the government to deny wages to the teachers and funds to the schools not achieving the prescribed norm of pass percentage is sure to be deemed draconian and seen as a fire-fighting step, with the parents of the students of the affected schools clueless on the fate of their children.

The norm of whatever percentage of passes prescribed by the authorities as minimum to be crossed by the private aided schools militates against the freedom of the school managements in deciding the admissions to classes beginning with even pre-school stage, given the law that makes 25 per cent of such admissions to comply with the Right To Education (RTE) Act. There being four parties involved in the action, namely a) The Department of Education, b) The teacher fraternity, c) The Managements of private aided schools and d) The parents who have patronised the aided schools that have low tariffs compared to unaided private schools where education of the wards costs a bomb.

While the intended punitive measure is bound to create panic among the teachers, the authorities will do well to examine other less harsh but result-yielding measures, in which the academics can extend a helping hand. The solution to the problem should not leave the teachers, students and parents stranded. Trailing the teachers must conform to elegance of method and decorum of acting.

Rabbit dubbed world's oldest by Guinness

Illinois: A pet rabbit has been declared the oldest in the world by Guinness World Records after celebrating his 16th birthday at Illinois.

Mick, an agouti rabbit, marked his 16th birthday on Feb. 9 and Guinness said that milestone made him the world's oldest rabbit (living). Liz Rench, Mick's owner, said she met the bunny in 2004 when she was volunteering at an animal shelter, and a friend of hers ended up adopting the rabbit. Her friend later ended up moving out of town, and Mick came to to live with Rench.

The oldest rabbit ever is listed by Guinness is Flopsy, a wild-born Australian rabbit that was taken in by a Tasmania resident in 1964 and lived for nearly 19 more years.

Man on wheelchair hitches ride

Pretoria: A video of a man on a wheelchair hitching a ride from a truck moving along a busy South African motorway has gone viral. The video, filmed near Pretoria, shows the man using his right arm to hold on to the corner of the moving truck going about 50mph down the center lane while the daredevil seems more than happy to continue the free ride.

When a red car drives past the truck, the person lets go and expertly pushes himself away from the vehicle and onto a nearby off-ramp.

South Africa's Road Traffic Management Corporation, however, took a dim view of the stunt, slamming the daredevil, saying "In a country where we lose close to 14,000 people annually as a result of road crashes, this is totally unacceptable. We condemn this dangerous behavior."

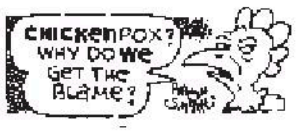
What causes shingles?



Shingles is a viral condition caused by the varicella zoster virus, the same virus that causes chickenpox. After you've recovered from chickenpox, the virus can enter your nervous system and lie dormant for many years before it re-emerges in the form of shingles. Battery operated vehicle is not free in Bengaluru Rly. Station

Sir,

A week back, me and my wife (both senior citizens) visited Bengaluru to attend to some personal work. On our way back we had to catch 6.15 Chamundi Express. As my wife is suffering from chronic knee pain, we requested the assistance of the battery run vehicle (for the first time) from the back gate to platform number 5 (which is a long walk as the AC coach where we had our reservation, is attached right behind the engine).

We were under the impression that the service was free for the disabled, but to our surprise the driver said that we had to pay Rs.24 per person. There was no chance for any argument. As we had no option,we utilised the car service by making payment. No one will question if that is the rule. What was more frustrating was that we were not allowed by the driver to keep even a small suit case with us !! After a long argument he reluctantly obliged.

It is very sad that these measures implemented with a particular purpose are not really passenger friendly. Well, in the end, even after a demand, he neither showed any order or paper in support of the charge, nor gave any receipt for the payment we made.

I still don't know whether we really have to pay or we were just taken for a ride literally. If the Public Relations Officer of the Railways throws some light on the issue, it will be of great help to many passengers like us.

He was the Registrar of Tumkur University and was appointed as KSOU VC on Mar.10, 2016.

Prof. Shivalinagaiah

According to sources in KSOU, Prof. Shivalingaiah had already demitted office on Mar.8 itself as Mar.10 the last day of his tenure was a Sunday and Mar.9 was a Second Saturday which again is a holiday. However, the sources said that he was still hopeful of an extension of his tenure and now it has come true.

"In 2006 and 2012, the VCs were given a year's extension as per the provisions of KSOU Act. Prof. Shivalingaiah was also hopeful of an extension. It will be the last VC selection by the Governor's Office before the LS polls. The competition is very tough," sources added.

Meanwhile, even as his tenure was coming to an end, the selection process had already begun with the formation of a Search Committee that included Karnataka Folklore University VC Prof. D.B. Naik, former VC of University of Mysore Prof. S.N. Hegde and National Assessment and Accreditation Council Director Dr. S.C. Sharma.

The Committee had recommended the names of R.K. Ravishankar Rai and M .Ramachandra, Zoology Professor, Bangalore University for the post of the VC. Fourth AGM of MAHAN held

Mysuru, Mar. 12- MAHAN, the Mysore Association of Hospitals, Nursing Homes and Diagnostics, at its recently held Fourth Annual General Body Meeting, resolved to strengthen its membership base and extend its public service activities like medical camps, health awareness lectures and marches to spread consciousness among citizens about the harmful effects of evils like tobacco and alcohol.

Welcoming the members of the general body, MAHAN President Dr. C. Mahesh Kumar stressed upon the need for doctors to remain united to ensure that their interests are protected and the problems faced by them are resolved easily through collective effort.

He expressed happiness that ever since its inception MAHAN members had been able to achieve significant progress in countering and setting right many retrograde policies of the government that concerned the private health care sector which was the biggest provider of quality health care in the State. Had this not been done the very survival of private health care establishments all over the State would have been imperilled.

He thanked members for their unstinting support to the organisation and stressed that it was only their sustained and united efforts which had made this possible and which would also make it possible in the future to protect the interests of both the private health care providers and also the patients who depended on them for their good health. He therefore urged all private health care providers in and around the city to become members of MAHAN and thus strengthen it.

When members unanimously decided to continue having the same office-bearers for the coming year too, Dr. Mahesh Kumar thanked them for placing their faith in the same team.

Presenting a report, Association Secretary Dr. B. N. Rajeeva gave a detailed account of all its activities over the past one year and a synopsis of its performance ever since its inception.

Dr. Santrupth, Treasurer, presented the balance sheet of its accounts. Dr. Vijaya Cheluvaraj, Joint Secretary, proposed a vote of thanks.

The meeting was followed by a cultural programme where doctors and their family members too presented their talents in association with Thiagraj, a very popular singer of the city.

Incidentally, this programme almost resembled a miniature version of 'Geeth Gaatha Chal' the unique and very popular doctors' annual musical nite, as many of the performers were the same !

Siddharamaiah wants Mysuru Lok Sabha seat for Congress

Congress shortlists four candidates

Bengaluru, Mar.12- With the coalition partners in the State Government — JD(S) and Congress, yet to finalise seat sharing for the Lok Sabha (LS) polls, CLP leader and former Chief Minister Siddharamaiah has strongly opposed leaving the Mysuru-Kodagu seat to the JD(S).

At the Congress party Screening Committee meeting held here yesterday, Siddharamaiah insisted that the Congress keep the Mysuru seat for itself.

Pointing out that the JD(S) has never won the Mysuru LS seat, Siddharamaiah is said to have reminded the Congress leaders that the JS(S) failed to win the seat when it was in power in the State, with himself being the Deputy CM then. In such a situation, the Congress must not leave the seat to the JD(S), Siddharamaiah is said to have told the party leadership.

Congress shortlists four candidates

Meanwhile, the Congress, which is hoping to get the Mysuru-Kodagu seat for itself, is said to have shortlisted the names of four candidates for the seat.

The shortlisted candidates are former MP C.H. Vijayashankar, who joined the Congress ahead of last year's Assembly polls, Mysuru District Congress President Dr.B.J. Vijaykumar, Congress Spokesperson Brijesh Kalappa and former AICC Secretary Sooraj Hegde.

A Committee, which included KPCC President Dinesh Gundu Rao, former CM Siddharamaiah, Working President Eshwar Khandre, Deputy CM Dr.G. Parameshwara and Congress leaders Mallikarjun Kharge and D.K. Shivakumar is said to have shortlisted the four candidates out of 12 ticket aspirants.

Who will be the BJP candidate to take on sitting MP R. Dhruvanarayan in Chamarajanagar?

Chamarajanagar, Mar.12 (SS& DM)- With the Election Commission of India announcing the poll schedule for the Lok Sabha (LS) polls on Sunday, political activities have gained traction in Chamarajanagar.

Dhruvanarayan

With sitting MP R. Dhruvanarayan of the Congress is most likely to be renominated by the party, the question doing the rounds in the district is who will be the BJP candidate to take on Dhruvanarayan in this SC reserved Constituency.

The Chamarajanagar (SC) LS seat has eight Assembly segments — Chamarajanagar, Gundlupet, Kollegal and Hanur in Chamarajanagar district and Nanjangud, T. Narsipur, Varuna and H.D. Kote in Mysuru district.

Out of the eight Assembly segments, four are currently held by the Congress, two by the BJP and one each by the JD(S) and BSP.

The seat, which has went to the Congress as per an informal understanding between the Congress and JD(S) as of now. A formal announcement on the seat sharing between the two parties is yet to come and the issue is being taken seriously taken by the Congress and so also by the BJP and BSP.

While two-term sitting MP R. Dhruvanarayan of the Congress is busy getting prepared to contest the polls again, the BJP is yet to announce its candidate. The BJP has as many as 12 aspirants for the seat — Mysuru District BJP President M. Shivanna, former MLAs Dr.N.L. Bharathi Shankar and G.N. Nanjundaswamy, former MP Kagalawadi M. Shivanna, former ZP President S. Mahadevaiah, Advocate Arun Kumar, former IAS officer K. Shivaram, retired IFS officer Dr. R. Raju, former MLC C. Ramesh, Dr. Mohan, son-in-law of former Union Minister V. Sreenivasa Prasad, retired official Dr. Mahadevappa and leader Venkataramanaswamy (Papu).

Although former Union Minister and senior BJP leader V. Sreenivasa Prasad, who in the past had represented the Constituency for five terms, had on many occasions declined to contest elections, many in the party believe that Prasad will be the most formidable candidate to take on the sitting Congress MP.

However, there are speculations that Prasad may agree to contest if the BJP high command asks him to. It is also said that Prasad may change his stand and opt to contest depending upon the Bahujan Samaj Party (BSP) candidate from the Constituency.

As far as the BSP is concerned, sitting Kollegal MLA N. Mahesh is in the forefront, while the name of former IAS officer Shivakumar too is doing the rounds.

BSP to contest in all 28 seats in State

Mysuru, Mar.12 (RKB&NNN)- Bahujan Samaj Party (BSP) will contest in all the 28 seats in the State in the 17th Lok Sabha elections, said MLA and former Minister N. Mahesh.

N. Mahesh

Addressing the party workers at the Party Office in Shivarampet here yesterday, he said that last time they had committed a mistake by tying up with JD(S) and had realised the mistake. Hence, this time they would go alone and contest all the 28 seats as they had a large following in most parts of the State with nearly 8 to 10 lakh followers in places like Mysuru, Chamarajanagar, Chikkaballapur, Bidar, Kalaburagi, Chikkodi and Bagalkot.

He exhorted the party workers to work hard and see that at least the party wins two seats as it was in fight with national parties like the Congress and the BJP. Party Chief Mayawati will be addressing rallies in Mysuru and it was the duty of the party workers to gather at least a lakh of people for the rally, he added.

He predicted that the SP (Samajawadi Party) and BSP combine would sweep Uttar Pradesh and BSP would play a pivotal role in Government formation at the Centre. Mahesh asked the ticket aspirants to come forward and pay a fee of Rs.10,000 which was non-refundable.

He cautioned the party workers not to post anything for or against the party or other parties on the social media as the Election Commission which would take disciplinary action.

He asked them to visit each village and create awareness about the party and its prospects in the coming elections.

Corporator Begum Pallavi, Zone in-charge Siddaraju, District President Prabhuswamy and others were present.

Distribute ST certificates for Parivara, Talawara communities: Pratap Simha

MP meets DCRE SP, submits memorandum

Mysuru, Mar.12 (MTY&SR)- Following complaints of harassment meted out to 'Parivara' and 'Talawara' communities over the delay in issuance of ST certificates across the district, Nayaka community leaders, led by MP Pratap Simha, submitted a memorandum to M.S. Geetha, Superintendent of Police, Directorate of Civil Rights Enforcement (DCRE), Mysuru, at the Office of the Directorate in Siddarthanagar here yesterday.

They sought stern action against the officials of the Revenue Department for allegedly harassing the community people in the distribution of certificates in the Taluk Offices and also for not providing Government facilities to these communities.

The MP said that the Union Government led by Prime Minister Narendra Modi had approved the inclusion of 'Parivara' and 'Talawara' communities in the list of Scheduled Tribes (STs) in Karnataka last year and had issued notification already and directed the State Government to facilitate the distribution of ST certificates to these communities, he added.

He alleged that he had received complaints from people of the communities including from members of various 'Nayaka' community organisations over harassment to the community people over this issue.

These two sub-sects of Nayaka ST Community were deprived of reservation, other Government facilities enjoyed under the status and the community people had waged a long battle for fulfilment of their demands across the district and State, he added.

"I had struggled very hard for the inclusion of these two communities to enjoy the benefits, moved from pillar to posts at various Offices in New Delhi, even met PM Modi, Social Justice and Empowerment Department to get the status," he said.

The Karnataka Government had also recommended the inclusion of these communities as synonyms of 'Nayaka' appearing at Sl.No. 38 in the list of STs in the State, he said.

Speaking after receiving the memorandum, DCRE SP M.S. Geetha assured to look into the issue and ensure the distribution of ST certificates to 'Parivara' and 'Talawara' community people.

BJP leaders Appanna, former MLC Siddaraju, Nayaka community leaders Paduvarahalli Ramakrishna, Dyavappanayaka and others were present.

'Forest, Police Departments must take blame for fire atop Ch.Hill

Mysuru, Mar.12- BJP State Co-spokesperson R. Raghu Kautilya has blamed the Forest and Police Departments for the recent fire atop Chamundi Hill where hundreds of acres of forest land have been destroyed.

In a press release, Raghu has stated that the National Green Tribunal must register suo-moto cases against environmental damage and direct the Police and Forest Departments to take measures to prevent future fire incidents.

Unfortunately, the Forest Department has not learnt lessons after the fire at Bandipur where thousands of acres of forest land have gutted due to forest inferno. Though the Forest Department widely claimed in the media that measures have been taken to prevent the fire, the Department was caught unawares, Raghu alleged.

He said that Chamundi Hill was a haven for illegal activities including murder, rape, gambling and dacoity and the jurisdictional Police have failed to curb the menace. Most of the Police vehicles are being used to collect fine and harass motorists. "In the enthusiasm of collecting fine, the Police have forgotten their basic duty of providing security to the Chamundi Hill," Raghu said.

The Forest Department has failed to prevent encroachments at the foot of Chamundi Hill and surrounding areas where private landlords and land sharks have occupied and fenced hundreds of acres of land, he said and demanded the constitution of a Committee of citizens to protect the Chamundi Hill by implementing the Committee's recommendations.

Cow, calf injured in tiger attack

Gonikoppal, Mar.12- In separate incidents, a cow and a calf were injured when a tiger attacked them at Besagur village near Gonikoppal in Kodagu. The incidents have created panic among the villagers.

On Sunday night, the tiger attacked a cow belonging to one Natesh which was tied near the cowshed. When the people began to make noise and rushed towards the cowshed on hearing the cries of the cow, the tiger is said to have fled from the spot. Injury marks were found on the cow.

In the second incident on Monday morning, the tiger has attacked a calf belonging to P. Ramesh of the village at the field injuring the calf on its neck.

The cow and the calf were treated by the Veterinarian.

Ponnampet Range Forest Officer (RFO) Gangadhar visited the spot.

It is learnt that, villagers who were returning to their homes on Sunday evening, sighted a tiger crossing the road from the forest near Mahadeshwara Swamy Temple and on the same night, the tiger has attacked the cow of Natesh.

Hope for Men with Azoospermia ! - zero sperms in the ejaculate

The general perception is that if the man produces semen it always contains sperms. This is not true. Unfortunately a number of men coming to Gunasheela Fertility Centre even refuse a semen test with this assumption. There are instances where the man is able to produce semen but it does not contain any sperms. Azoospermia is a condition where there are no sperms in the ejaculated semen. There are two types - Obstructive Azoospermia and Non-Obstructive Azoospermia.

In Obstructive Azoospermia there will be normal sperm production in the testis but there is obstruction to the flow of sperms at various levels. The blockage could be anywhere between the testis and the urethra (urine passage). Infection, injury or surgery (for hernia or hydrocele) of the genital tract may result in this condition. As a result there will be no sperms in the ejaculated semen. The blockage can be bypassed by surgery or sperms obtained using a fine needle directly from the testis. Sperms are retrieved in almost 100% of patients. These sperms can then be used for injecting the wife's eggs in a procedure called IVF – ICSI.

Dr. Devika Gunasheela
Fertility Specialist,
Gunasheela Fertility Centre,
Mysore and Bangalore.

In Non-Obstructive Azoospermia there is a problem with production of sperms in the testis. The exact cause is not known in most of the cases but Radiation, Chemotherapy, Mumps infection in childhood, Hormonal deficiencies may result in this condition. A new procedure known as Micro dissection Testicular Sperm Extraction (Micro – TESE) is used to retrieve sperms so that these men can have their own biologic child. Using Micro-TESE sperms can be obtained in upto 60% of these patients.

The sperms obtained by either technique are used in a procedure called IVF-ICSI (test-tube baby). The pregnancy rate from this technique is similar to that achieved in IVF-ICSI using normally ejaculated sperms. Many patients have been treated this way successfully and we have had the first baby in the state with the Micro-TESE surgical procedure. The dangers of Israelisation

Point of VIEW

T.J.S. George

Pakistan is ruled by its military and the military has an animosity against India that won't go away. The reason is permanently engraved in a photograph — Gen. A.A.K. Niazi signing papers formalising his country's surrender to India in Dhaka in 1971. The wiping out of East Pakistan and the creation of Bangladesh were twin humiliations that became etched in Pakistan army's DNA. For this reason, we should not expect meaningful peace with Pakistan in the foreseeable future. Large sections of ordinary Pakistanis have campaigned from time to time for normal relations with India. So have Indians. But normalcy will not come as long as the craving for revenge drives Pakistan's military leadership.

Currently, a worldwide awakening against terrorism has weakened Pakistan. European nations raised the issue in the UN. The influential Paris-based Financial Action Task Force included Pakistan in its "grey list", a mark of disapproval. Even China advised Pakistan to distance itself from terrorist groups. This could be why Pakistan hinted that it would not oppose a UN listing of Jaish-e-Mohammed (JeM) Founder Masood Azhar as a global terrorist. Action was necessary, the Foreign Minister said, to protect "our global reputation."

Action was indeed taken — banning various organisations identified with terrorism and taking 44 men under preventive custody, including Masood Azhar's son and brother, both of whom were named in the Indian dossier given to Pakistan. Pakistan's bonafides in these actions are unsure; preventive custody could mean custody to prevent any harm coming to the men. Even so, Pakistan has been forced by international opinion to take measures and make statements it has not done before.

It would be dangerous for India to interpret these developments as signs of peace breaking out in the region. The hatreds that drive organisations like JeM are too deep-rooted to go away in a hurry. Comparable hatreds have unfortunately developed in certain segments of the population in India also in recent years. If we do not accept this, we will have no right to claim moral superiority over Pakistan. Post Pulwama, India's positions have raised several questions. Two of them are especially disturbing.

Question number one: Why did the BJP — and the Congress — politicise the military action? The Prime Minister and the President of the ruling party made statements that linked the air-strike with the imminent elections. Beyond them, Salman Khurshid of the Congress Party made a fool of himself and his party by claiming credit for Wing Commander Abhinandan's bravery. He said the IAF hero "received his wings in 2004 and matured as a fighter pilot during UPA." How pathetic can a politician get !

From the BJP's side, Minister Piyush Goyal turned himself into an embodiment of intolerance when a TV anchor politely asked him questions many Indians were asking about the IAF strike at Balakot. Goyal was inexplicably agitated, wouldn't listen to the anchor, and went on with his near-abusive onslaught. When the anchor managed to say, "Minister, neither me nor anybody sitting here needs any lesson in patriotism from you," the audience clapped showing the isolation of Goyal and his bigotry.

Question number two should worry us more: How will Israelisation of Indian policy help? For years now Israel has been carrying on an intensive military campaign against Palestinians in their homeland. It is the world's most unequal war since Israel is equipped with the latest military devices while the Palestinians have only militant groups left to their own devices. Offences like stone-pelting by Palestinians are met by state-of-the-art missile attacks by Israel. In recent years, India's ties with Israel have become closer than its ties with any other country. Is Israel's policy towards Palestinians going to be a model for India's policy towards Kashmiris?

Decades of Israeli overkill have failed to ease their Palestine problem. This adds irony to India's new-found admiration for Israel's style of functioning. It was left to Brussels-based researcher Shairee Malhotra to point out that "Israel's biggest fans in India appear to be the 'internet Hindus' who primarily love Israel for how it deals with Palestine and fights Muslims."

The doyen of Middle East specialists, Robert Fisk, wrote: "Israel has been assiduously lining itself up alongside India's nationalist BJP Government in an unspoken — and politically dangerous — 'anti-Islamist' coalition, an unofficial, unacknowledged alliance, while India itself has become the largest weapons market for the Israeli arms trade... It is difficult to see how Zionist nationalism will not leach into Hindu nationalism when Israel is supplying so many weapons to India."

He who has ears to hear, let him hear.

Bofors Gun at 'Sunny Side'

Host of Indian Army weapons to be displayed at Gen. K.S. Thimayya Memorial Museum in Madikeri

Field Marshal K. M. Cariappa

Gen. K.S. Thimayya

Major B. A. Nanjappa

Madikeri, Mar. 12 - First it was an Army Tank that arrived at 'Sunny Side', Gen. Kodandera Subayya Thimayya's house in Madikeri that is being converted into a museum. Next is the turn of weapons used by the soldiers of Indian Army to arrive at the house. And all these have arrived as per the directions of Chief of Army Staff Gen. Bipin Rawat.

During his visit to Kodagu on Nov. 4, 2017 to unveil the bronze statues of Field Marshal Kodandera M. Cariappa and General Kodandera S. Thimayya at Cauvery College in Gonikoppal, South Kodagu, Gen. Rawat had promised to deliver vintage weapons to increase the value of 'Sunny Side' so that it can be a major military attraction.

With works to convert 'Sunny Side' on G.T. Road in Madikeri into a memorial museum, weapons have started arriving as promised by Gen. Rawat. First it was an Army Tank that was transported by road from Kirkee War Cemetery at Khadki, a town near Pune in Maharashtra, to the General Thimayya Museum.

The weapons that were used by the soldiers of Indian Army in the past during many operations have been donated to the museum. The weapons include Light Machine Guns that are over 60 years old, Medium Machine guns, Self-Loading Rifles, 7.62 and 303 Bore rifles, rocket launchers, 32 mm rifle and 38 mm rifles, among others.

'Sunny Side,' the residence of General K.S. Thimayya that is being converted into a Museum in Madikeri.

With the shipment of weapons reaching the museum, preparations are underway to assemble the spare parts of the weapons, according to Army Officials. Field Marshal K.M. Cariappa-General K.S. Thimayya Forum Convenor Major Biddanda A. Nanjappa said that visitors will get to see a cannon used by the Indian Army which is being transported from Madras Regiment of the Indian Army.

"Army Chief Gen. Rawat had provided a list of 1,400 guns and the Forum members were asked to choose any 45 guns from the list. Accordingly we prepared the list of the arms that we wanted for the museum and sent it to the Army Chief," Maj. Nanjappa told Star of Mysore.

But as the arms and their spares were deposited at different arms depots across the country, there was delay in the shipment of arms to the museum at Madikeri. Later, the Forum presented a memorandum to Major General Kodanda P. Cariappa, who is working in the Military regiment of the President of India, who in turn formed a six member team headed by Hawaldar Sarjit Singh to despatch the arms.

The Medium Machine Gun that will be displayed at the museum has the capacity to easily kill an enemy soldier who is at a distance of two miles. The Light Machine Guns were used by a platoon to rain bullets on the enemy while Bazooka Rocket Launchers blew enemy posts and bunkers at the border to smithereens. Even some of the personal arms used by the soldiers in one-on-one combat will be displayed.

Maj. Nanjappa further said that Gen. Rawat has agreed to provide a Bofors gun in the museum premises. As the Bofors gun is a huge one, the Madras Regiment has been entrusted with the responsibility of transportation and installation. The Bofors gun will be among the main attractions at the 'Sunny Side'.

The arms and ammunition will provide a galaxy of information to the younger generation on old-time war guns and machinery and the Museum will also inspire the youths to join the Armed Forces, he said. "Visitors can actually feel the guns to understand the battle-line difficulties and how modern weaponry has made India to fight the enemy effectively," he added.

'Sunny Side' is being renovated and artworks featuring the valour of Indian soldiers on the battlefield will occupy the centre stage. Other main attractions of the museum will be the articles used by Gen. K.S. Thimayya, military uniforms, books and information on Indian Army, Navy and Air Force.

Besides, there are plans to design a park and install a statue of K.S. Thimayya on the two- acre plot. It may be mentioned here that the State Government had announced the opening of Gen. K.S. Thimayya Memorial Museum.

Subsequently, the Kodagu district administration had submitted a Rs. 5.5 crore proposal to the State Government for approval. So far, Rs. 3.5 crore out of the total estimate of Rs. 6 crore has been utilised for renovation and other expenses related to the museum, according to officials, who also said that the Museum will become one of the major tourist attractions of Kodagu.

Secularism for Hindus
at the mercy of Courts?

Germaine Greer

Sabarimala Temple in Kerala.

The Sabarimala Temple of the presiding deity Swamy Ayyappa, which is under a controversy following a Supreme Court order to allow women of all ages to enter the temple and offer prayers, was opened yesterday (Monday) for the annual temple festival being held for 10 days. The festival will end on Mar. 21. The temple has got a new gold-plated door for the sanctum sanctorum. This may be to make the new rush of women devotees happy. After all, women love gold !!

So far, no news about possible trouble at the shrine with women devotees going on a pilgrimage, with or without Police protection, has appeared in any media. However, one need not be surprised if problems erupt like it happened in the past ever since the Supreme Court gave its controversial decision.

Many were complaining that the traditional practice was a clear case of nihilism or misogynism.

It is difficult to agree with this kind of arguments because the temple has not per se banned women from going to the temple or entering the sanctum sanctorum. The tradition has always allowed women who are below the age of 10 and above the age of 50 to visit the temple and pray. The reason attributed for keeping out women above the age of 10 and below the age of 50 was that they menstruate during this age which is considered impure and therefore the ban.

The matter was taken to Court when in a Secular country, the Government or any Constitutional body, including the Judiciary, should have no role in interfering with matters religious, specially when there is no criminality or Human Rights violation. It is, therefore, not surprising that Rashtriya Swayamsevak Sangh (RSS) passed a resolution demanding protection of beliefs and traditions of Hindu society at the Akhil Bharatiya Pratinidhi Sabha (ABPS) held at Gwalior last Sunday. The ABPS also observed that there has been a systematic design to insult and hurt Hindu beliefs and traditions on the basis of non-Hindu beliefs and practices by entities with vested interests to denigrate Hinduism. The resolution specially mentioned the case of Sabarimala Temple as an example of this inimical and anti-Hindu design.

If Courts were to decide on such questions of faith and belief against the sentiments of an overwhelming majority of a community, we may have to look for an alternative definition of the word 'Secular' and its import. Right now, the interpretation of the word 'Secularism' and some provisions of the Constitution seem rather discriminatory.

I have been observing the ways of some of the Supreme Court Judges and the obiter dictums rolling out of their lips wrapped in enigmatic veils ever since May 16, 2014. Some senior advocates were even seen prompting the Judges and even giving suggestions to hear Ayodhya case, as old as the Himalayas, after the elections !

Having seen some of the decisions and reactions to them by some of the political parties and leaders to either nullify, review or simply delay or get a death sentence in a 'rarest of rare cases' and also in cases of terrorism involving the security of our nation commuted, I have a suggestion. Setup a Privy Council of the President of India, like that of the British monarch's in England, above the Supreme Court.

This Privy Council will take the last and final call on cases where the question of 'Secularism,' 'Freedom', Fundamental Rights', 'Socialism', 'Patriotism,' 'Nationalism', 'Nation', 'Minority', 'Majoritarianism', 'Terrorists,' 'Militants' and more are decided in the Supreme Court but challenged.

Recently, I was reading an article about Germaine Greer, an 80-year-old celebrated feminist, intellectual and polemicist of Australia, which alludes to her opinion about the Sabarimala controversy when brought to her notice in the interview — about women fighting for entry into Sabarimala Temple following Supreme Court judgement. This is what she said spontaneously:

"I will ask why? If it was a golf club, it would be fine (fighting for entry). They could say, 'We only allow women with red hair in.' Why can't we women, start a club (probably with similar conditions) where the men are begging to be let in."

Germaine Greer disagreed with the Court's ruling rather vehemently and said:

"I think the decision by the Court, a secular authority to ask a religious establishment to abide by their decision is profoundly wrong. India depends on a concept of freedom of religion."

However, she was equally vehement when asked if it made her angry when women were considered "impure" for a few days each month (during her menstrual cycle). In her retort, she said, "It is nonsense. Not even typical of Hinduism."

Now, what is that? I guess, it could be that the idea of "impure" is not a rule or absolute belief per se but only an exception as in the case of Sabarimala Temple. If it is so, so be it !

Tyagaraja and Purandara Aradhana

By Dr. Rama V. Bennur

The Aradhana season is still going on. One of the Sabhas that celebrate Tyagaraja and Purandara Aradhana with pomp and fervor is N.R. Mohalla Sangeetha Sabha. They celebrate every year with two concerts, and on the third day, individuals offer their Sangeetha Seva followed by Goshti Gayana, honouring senior musicians and Maha Mangalarathi. This year too the celebrations went on from Feb.15 to 17. Vidu. Archana and Arathi of Chennai performed on the 15th and Vidu. Vani Satish of Bengaluru sang on the 16th. Vidwans T.P. Vaidyanathan, R.K.Padmanabha and Tandavamurthy were honoured after the Goshti Gayana.

The twin sisters, Arathi and Archana, were accompanied by Vid. H.K. Narasimhamurthy on violin, Vid. G.S. Ramanujam on mridanga and S. Manjunath on ghata.

Arathi and Archana can create a powerful impact on the listeners with their brisk singing. The co-ordination and understanding between them is complementary to their singing. The vigorous style carries their not-so-strong voices with ease. Be it Alapana or Kalpana swaras, the vigor and the vibrating colour catches you. Arathi started off with a Navagraha Sloka in the raga Athana, followed by 'Sakala graha bala neene' by Purandaradasa. The brisk 'Rama nannu brovara' (Harikambodhi) with a frill of crispy swaras followed. A soft and more expressive approach in the ragalapana (Varali) would have suited a pathetic and morose composition like 'Eti janmamidi ha.' One needs to dive deep into the kruti to do justice to the composer as well.

The two 'not-so-popular' keerthanas 'Seetavara Sangeetha Jnanamu' (Devagandhari-Tyagaraja) and 'Sri mahabala girivasini' (Sarangamalhar-Muthiah Bhagavatar) were received well by the listeners. The main raga of the day was Bhairavi. The two sisters elaborated with time-tested phrases followed by a good delineation by H.K. Narasimhamurthy. 'Upacharamu' was the right choice. The cascade of swaras exhibited their scholarship. The Tani avartana by Ramanujam and Manjunath was studded with variety of rhythmic patterns. An interesting devaranama in Kedaragowla 'Rama emberadakkarada mahime' brought the curtains down.

Vidu. Vani Satish was accompanied by Adithi Krishnaprakash on violin, H.L. Shivashankaraswamy on mridanga and Sharath Kaushik on ghata respectively.

Vani began the concert with 'Jayajaya Jankikantha' (Nata) with a brief introduction of the raga and kalpana swaras. Her core strength is singing with bhava. Her way of nurturing a raga with clear phrases is appealing. For instance, the way she handled raga Suryakantha was awesome. The keerthana 'Muddumomu' was very pleasing. Vani's uncle Bellary Sheshagiri Achar was a very good composer. His composition in Vachaspathy was taken as the second main. She dived in to the raga and unveiled every dimensions of it. Adithi too was pleasing in exploring the raga.

After a brisk 'Shobhillu sapthaswara' (Jaganmohini), the main raga Kharaharapriya was taken for a detailed exposition. It was packed with emotion that flowed melodiously in her bright voice. Adithi's bow did not lag behind in making it more melodious. 'Chakkani rajamarga' showed the raja marga in a leisurely pace. They both weaved a number of patterns around Dhaivatha as the center in kalpana swaras.

The percussion support by Shivashankaraswamy and Sharath Kaushik was commendable. The clear diction and emotion she brings in Devaranama and Vachana is delectable. 'Neenolidare' and 'Kagada bandide' had her magical touch.

TENNIS OVERVIEW

By U.B. Acharya

World's Top 30 Tennis Players

The Association of Tennis Players (ATP) has an excellent quantitative system for ranking current players based on each player's performance on a moving 52 week period. The ranking goes down to below 1000 and one can see how a current player is performing on a weekly basis. However, comparing tennis players of different eras and ranking them is subject to criticism by other analysts. Yet, practically all tennis writers and analysts have done exactly the same and here I am jumping in to the same bandwagon.

Let me first give a slight historical background. Newport-based 'Tennis Hall of Fame' releases an 'All Time Top Ten' male player's list every year. The same is reproduced in the table below. In addition, in 2013, John Bercow, sitting Conservative MP and now the Speaker of the House of Commons, who is also a great tennis lover and an analyst, published a book named "Tennis Maestros: The Twenty Greatest Male Tennis Players of All Time." His list is also attached herewith.

Around the same time, US-based 'TENNIS' Channel arranged a TV show named '100 Greatest of All Times' which included female players also. While the panel consisted of well-known sportspersons of games other than tennis like Jack Nicklaus (Golf), Wayne Gretzky (Ice Hockey), Jerry Rice (American Football), Lisa Leslie (Basket Ball) and Carl Lewis (Track and Field), they were also assisted by some of the past great tennis players like Rod Laver, Bjorn Borg, Pete Sampras, etc. This list has been updated subsequently to include the newer great players like Novak Djokovic and presented in the table alongside.

All the above mentioned lists are essentially qualitative. In the present exercise, an objective or a quantitative approach has been adopted using a Point Count System and the methodology used is as follows:

Major Titles (Loosely referred to as Grand Slam Titles) — Winner: 0-5= 1 point; 6-10= 1.5 and above 11= 2 points; Runner-Up: 0.5 point; Bonus Points — GS (4 titles in the same Calendar Year) = 12; Six titles in a row including GS = 16; Five titles in a row including GS =14; Individual Slam = 8; Career Slam = 5 points; Three Majors in a year = 6 and Two Majors in a year = 3 points.

Professional Major Title (Prior to 1968) — Winner: 0.75 point; Bonus — Three Pro Majors in a year = 4 points and Two Pro Majors in a year = 2 points.

Olympics Singles Title: Gold = 2, Silver = 1 and Bronze = 0.5 point; Career Singles Title: Winner = 0.1 point; Masters 1000 Series Title: Winner = 0.25 point; ATP/ WCT Finals: Winner = 0.75 point; Win-Loss Percentage: (Win Percentage - 75) = 1 point; No.1 Rank in Weeks: 0.05 point per week.

Using the above technique, point count has been calculated for 149 players and the data for the top 30 players is attached here in a tabular format.

A review of this table brings out some very interesting facts. One of them is, between 1920 and 2010, every decade has produced 3 to 4 top class players. However, during the present decade, there has been no world class champion. That is because the three champions, Roger Federer, Rafael Nadal and Djokovic, who got into this top 30 club during the last decade, are still ruling the roost!

The second observation is, though the ranking by three other experts is based mainly on qualitative analysis and the present one is based on quantitative method, the top five rankings are more or less the same in all studies. One minor difference is by MP John Bercow. He has placed Djokovic as 16th ranked player and this is understandable as his ranking was done in 2013 and at that time Djokovic was emerging as a budding champion. He in fact grew to his present status during the past five years.

MCC felicitates Pourakarmikas

Mysuru, Mar.12 (PM&SR)- Mysuru City Corporation (MCC) felicitated Pourakarmikas and hosted lunch for them on Sunday for their valuable contributions which helped the city bag the third Cleanest City award and 5 Star status for garbage-free city in the Swachh Survekshan-2019 which were announced recently. District in-Charge Minister G.T. Devegowda, Mayor Pushpalatha Jagannath and MLA Nagendra feted nine selected Pourakarmikas at the function held at Rajendra Kalamandira in city.

MCC had selected one Pourakarmika from each of its nine zones across the city — Jayamma Murthy (Zone-1), Mani (Zone-2), Lakshmidevamma (Zone-3), Sarasamma (Zone-4), Ravi (Zone-5), Hanumanthu (Zone-6), Amjad Pasha (Zone-7), K. Santosh (Zone-8) and R. Venkatesh (Zone-9).

Pourakarmika leader Narayana and Garbage Disposal Vehicles Owners Association President Chandrashekaraiah were also honoured on the occasion.

In his address, District Minister G.T. Devegowda called upon MCC to strive hard to make the city to get top position in the next Swachh Survekshana.

Mayor Pushpalatha Jagannath and Pourakarmika leader Narayana urged the District Minister to prevail upon the Government to get their demands fulfilled. The Government had promised to look into their demands when they held protests prior to last Dasara celebrations. "Government must ensure breakfast for Pourakarmikas, cancel the contractual system of appointment, consider workers working in underground drainage as Pourakarmikas, appoint a Pourakarmika for the population of every 500 people instead of the existing 700 people in city, were some of their demands.

Earlier, confusion prevailed for sometime at the function hall when the leaders of MCC Underground Drainage Cleaning Workers Association members Palani, Kumaraswamy, Rajagopal and others shouted slogans against the organisers and expressed their displeasure on the Mayor and MCC Commissioner Shilpa Nag for not felicitating them. They alleged that they were not invited for the programme and the Civic Body had not recognised their services though they had been contributing equally in keeping the city clean besides helping the city to get the Cleanest City award. Later, Pourakarmika leader Narayana pacified them.

MCC fined Rs.1,500
for collecting 70 paise excess water bill

Mysuru, Mar.12 (ACP&DM)- In an interesting case, collecting 70 paise in excess of water bill from a consumer has made the MCC to pay Rs.1,500 as compensation.

Details: One S. Satish, a resident of Ramakrishnanagar H-Block in city, received a water bill for Rs.340.30 on June.17, 2018 from the MCC. He had paid Rs.340, just 30 paise short of the bill amount. But the MCC in its next bill issued on July.17, 2018 had added Rs.1 to the bill as dues, which in fact was 30 paise.

After receiving the July 17, 2018 bill, Satish moved the District Consumer Redressal Forum on Aug.4, 2018 seeking Rs.2 lakh compensation, claiming that he suffered from mental shock after receiving the water bill, which was 70 paise in excess.

Satish, in his petition, named the MCC Commissioner and Vani Vilas Water Works (VVWW) Executive Engineer as the respondents.

After accepting the petition, the Forum issued notices to the two respondents, seeking a written explanation from them.

Later, the Forum which heard the petition on Feb.28, 2019, directed the MCC to pay a compensation of Rs.1,000 and Rs.500 as legal charges to the complainant Satish within 45 days of the order, failing which the MCC has to pay the said amount (Rs.1,500) to the petitioner along with an annual interest of 12 percent.

The Forum, headed by its Chairman H.M. Shivakumaraswamy, with M.C. Devkumar as a member, held the MCC officials guilty of negligence and issued the order on Feb.28, 2019 directing the MCC to pay the compensation to the petitioner Satish.

Association President D.R. Venkatesh, in his address, said that there was no scope for any sort of politics in the Association.

S.M. Krishna predicts Modi as PM again

Bengaluru, Mar.12- Even as the countdown for the Lok Sabha polls has began with the Election Commission of India (ECI) announcing the poll schedule on Sunday, former CM, former Governor and former External Affairs Minister S.M. Krishna has predicted that Prime Minister Modi will be re-elected again and there was no doubt about it.

Speaking to press persons after senior BJP leader R. Ashok and Surapura MLA Narasimha Nayak aka Raju Gowda called on to invite him to join the BJP poll campaign, at his Sadashivanagar residence here yesterday, Krishna said that the people are wise enough to vote for Modi for the sake of the nation's growth and security.

Recalling his (Krishna) contribution for the development of Bengaluru when he was the Chief Minister over 15 years ago, Krishna said that he has been invited to campaign for the BJP and he will campaign for the party candidates in old Mysuru region.

Replying to a query on the possible candidature of JD(S) Supremo and former PM H.D. Deve Gowda from Bengaluru North Constituency, Krishna said that the LS polls are important and as such, people will vote for an ideology and not an individual. By inviting Krishna to campaign for the party, the BJP plans to consolidate the votes in its favour in Bengaluru, Mandya, Tumakuru etc. where Krishna still holds some influence among the voters.

Plumbers take out awareness rally on rainwater harvesting

Mysuru, Mar.12 (RKB&US)- Marking World Plumbers Day, over 100 members of Sir M. Visveswaraya Plumbing & Sanitary Labour's Welfare Union took out a rally in city yesterday morning to create awareness among people on the importance of rainwater harvesting.

WORD OF THE DAY

Vox populi

Pronunciation: VOKS-POP-yoo-lye

Meaning: The voice of the people, public opinion or a popular sentiment.

Origin: Vox populi is a Latin phrase that literally translates as "the voice of the people." It can be found in the longer maxim, Vox populi, vox Dei, which means "The voice of the people is the voice of God." Many people think that expression means that the people are always right, but it really implies that the will of the masses — right or wrong — is often irresistible. Since the mid-20th century, English speakers, especially British ones, have trimmed vox populi down to the abbreviated form vox pop, an expression used particularly for popular opinion as it is used and expressed by the media.

Example: "As has increasingly been the case in the six years since officials instituted a fan-voting component in 2012, acts ultimately chosen for induction also strongly reflect the vox populi: Def Leppard won that balloting this year, collecting more than 500,000 votes among the total of 3.3 million entered in the fan competition." — Randy Lewis, The Los Angeles Times. "While the Academy is certainly no stranger to controversy, they surely don't want to court it openly with hires that turn out to be less than ideal. Not to mention, the Academy Awards on the whole have become subject to somewhat of a critical re-evaluation by vox populi." — Mike Reyes, Cinema Blend.

PHRASE OF THE DAY

Three strikes and you are out

Meaning: If a country or an organisation has a three strikes and you're out policy or law, people who commit three offences are punished very severely, even if the separate offences are not very serious.

Origin: Clinton included it in his 1994 State of the Union Address: "Now those who commit crimes should be punished. And those who commit repeated, violent crimes should be told, 'When you commit a third violent crime, you will be put away, and put away for good. Three strikes, and you are out.'" He chose the slogan knowing its resonance with the US public as it had long been a baseball term and so familiar to voters there. The earliest citation that can be found in print is in the Ohio newspaper The Zanesville Signal, November 1940, in an advert for Dutro's Motors: "Three Strikes and you are out in a ball game but one strike in a shimmying car and you are out to stay. Let us stop that shimmy before it strikes you out."

QUOTE BOX

It is your determination and persistence that will make you a successful person. — Kenneth J. Hutchins
